Lois Lowry (born Lois Ann Hammersberg; March 20, 1937) is an American writer credited with forty-five children's books. She has won two Newbery Medals, for Number the Stars in 1990 and The Giver in 1994. For her contribution as a children's writer, she was a finalist in 2000 and U.S. nominee again in 2004, as well as a finalist in 2016, for the biennial international Hans Christian Andersen ...

Lois Lowry - Wikipedia

The Giver is a 1993 American young adult dystopian novel by Lois Lowry. It is set in a society which at first appears to be utopian but is revealed to be dystopian as the story progresses. The novel follows a 12-year-old boy named Jonas. The society has taken away pain and strife by converting to "Sameness", a plan that has also eradicated emotional depth from their lives.

A taxonomy is a nothing more than a classification system that arranges elements within a field of science according to their relationships. As educational psychology progressed in the early 1900's, researchers sought to improve methods of teaching and learning by classifying the response and reaction to information and mapping intellectual functions.

Historical Inquiry & Informational Reading . Reading about and understanding history is critical in the digital age. Students need to understand that regardless of whether you're investigating something that took place 200 years ago or 2 minutes ago, you need to ask: who wrote this and published this? can the document be trusted? what's the perspective? what are we missing? what's the context?

New Criticism. A literary movement that started in the late 1920s and 1930s and originated in reaction to traditional criticism that new critics saw as largely concerned with matters extraneous to the text, e.g., with the biography or psychology of the author or the work's relationship to literary history.
