OVERVIEW Legislation enacting the California Public Records Act (hereinafter, â€œCPRAâ€•) was signed in 1968, culminating a 15-year-long effort to create a general records law for California.

Summary of the California Public Records Act 2004

A public university is a university that is publicly owned or receives significant public funds through a national or subnational government, as opposed to a private university. Whether a national university is considered public varies from one country (or region) to another, largely depending on the specific education landscape.
